Forum on Human Rights Research (FoHRR) and the Institute for Social Transformation Research (ISTR) Proudly Presents:

‘Roundtable on Gender, Sexuality and Human Rights’
Presenter: Professor Dennis Altman

Date: Friday 5th April 2013
Time: 12.30 - 4.00pm
Location: 25.163 (Creative Arts Building)

All Welcome, but please let Vera Mackie know of your attendance for catering requirements.

PROGRAM
12:30~1:00: Registration, Sandwich Lunch, Welcome

1:00~2:15 Panel 1 – Chair: Vera Mackie
Kath Albury ‘Rights and risk: reframing education and policy responses to sexting’
Kane Race ‘Reluctant objects: PREP, risk and engaging sexual knowledge’
Mark McLelland ‘Thought policing or protection of youth? Debates around fictional child characters on the internet’

2:15~2:30 Tea Break

2:30~3:45 Panel 2 – Chair: Nicola Marks
Michael Flood ‘Men’s violence against women as a human rights issue: Progress and challenges’
Tanja Dreher ‘Did The Diggers really fight for gay rights? Contemporary challenges for same-sex rights claims in Australia’
Nan Seuffert ‘National boundaries, discretion and disbelief in Appellant S395/2002 v Minister for Immigration and Multicultural Affairs’

3:45 Response from Dennis Altman (Latrobe)

4:00 Close

In association with Professor Dennis Altman’s visit to the University of Wollongong, the Forum on Human Rights Research will host a Roundtable on Gender, Sexuality and Human Rights.

Professor Altman’s visit to UOW is co-sponsored by the UOW Ally Network, the Employment, Equity and Diversity Unit, the Forum on Human Rights Research (FoHRR), the Institute for Social Transformation Research (ISTR) and the School of Social Sciences, Media and Communication in the Faculty of Law, Humanities and the Arts.

For more information and rsvp for catering please contact Vera Mackie vmakie@uow.edu.au