Genealogies of Indefinite Detention: ‘Perverts’, ‘Terrorists’ and Business as Usual

Program

Thursday 13 August 2015

5:00 – 7:00pm
‘Echoes of Empire: Migration of Surveillance from Periphery to Metropole in the U.S. Imperium’
Professor Alfred W. McCoy, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Ground Floor, Room G02, Law Building (F8), UNSW Kensington Campus [click here for Law Building location]

Friday 14 August 2015

9:15 – 9:30 am
Introduction: Mehera San Roque, UNSW Law School

9:30 – 11:00 am
Panel: Restricted Movement
‘Indeterminate Detention in Canada: A Critique and an Update’
Professor Kent Roach, University of Toronto
‘Indefinite Detention, Queer Asylum Seekers and Stories of Origin’
Professor Nan Seuffert, University of Wollongong
‘Indefinite Detention of Aboriginal People Abusing Alcohol’
Professor Elena Marchetti, University of Wollongong
Professor Janet Ransley, Griffith University

11:15 – 12:45 pm
Panel: Confined Spaces
‘Sexual Violence in U.S. and Australian Immigration Detention’
Professor Suvendrini Perera, Curtin University and Professor Joseph Pugliese, Macquarie University
'Disabling Indefinite Detention: Denaturalising the Forensic Mental Health System'
Dr Linda Steele, University of Wollongong
‘Preventive Justice or Preventing Injustice: Preventive Detention in Mental Health, High Risk Offender and Anti-Terror Law’
Dr Tamara Tulich, University of Western Australia

12:45 – 1:45 pm
Lunch [Click to RSVP]

1:45 – 3:00 pm
‘Disappearing Peoples: Indefinite Detention and Settler Prerogative in United States History’
Professor Natsu Taylor Saito, Georgia State University, College of Law

3:30 – 4:45 pm
‘Reduced to a Body Part: Gendering Disposability’
Professor Sherene Razack, University of Toronto

4:45pm
Drinks and nibbles. All invited. [Click to RSVP]