The Faculty of Law, Humanities and the Arts develops skills that employers want, such as creative problem-solving, analytical thinking, self-discipline and team work. We offer a hands-on approach to learning. Practical subjects are taken with theoretical ones and are taught by staff with industry experience. Whether it is legal training in an internship or publishing using blogs and social media – we know what it takes to make it in the real world.

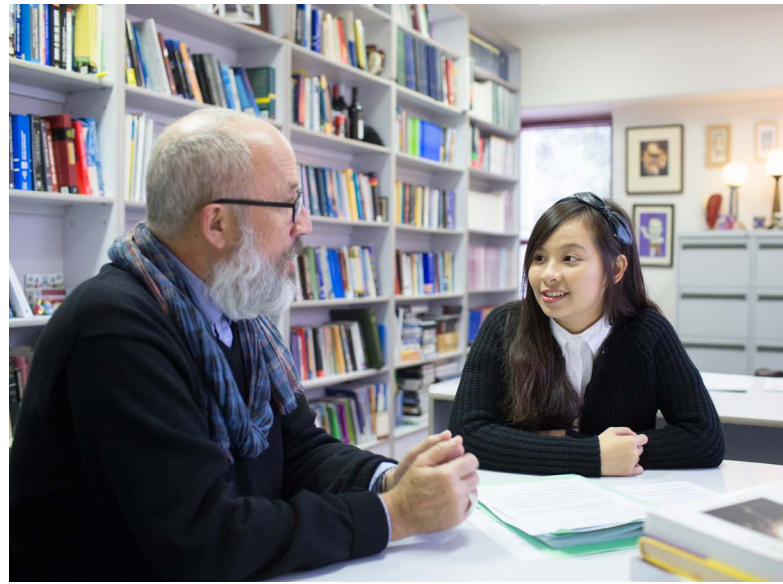

We are offering scholarships to high-achieving international students who commence one of the following courses at our main campus in Wollongong:

- Bachelor of Arts
- Bachelor of Communication & Media Studies
- Bachelor of Creative Arts
- Bachelor of Digital Media

The scholarships provide an additional 25% reduction of tuition fees to students who have been awarded a UOW Undergraduate Excellence Scholarship, bringing the total scholarship to 40% off the standard fee.
